They Spend Two Days Terrorizing Some Country Turkeys.

George Coffin and Harry Hoxworth procured forty-six head of healthy turkeys from Frank Livermore for a turkey shoot, which occurred last Wednesday and Thursday. The turthe country and of course were ignorant of the wicked ways of the town.

They were taken out to the ball ground and bound and gagged and placed from sixty to two hundred yards away from the shootist, and compelled to stand there and listen to the roar of cannon and toy guns until they became dispondent and seven of them committed suicide the first day.

The principals in the duel the first day were Mayor J. W. Francis, Wm. Powell and W. G. Dickinson, and the blood of the seven unfortunates may be laid to them as they wasted more of this city will give a maskquerade shell and shot than any others on the ground.
